

Widen Out In Your Responses To Those Answering Your Questions

Motivate your audience, bible study, or children to answer more by commending them on their response to your questions. Broaden your choice of words by using suggestions from this list.

Tip: Mix and match options to create your own set of responses.

|                |                                   |
|----------------|-----------------------------------|
| Correct        | Sure                              |
| Certainly      | Surely                            |
| Exactly        | Terrific                          |
| Excellent      | Thank you                         |
| Fine           | Thank you for that extra research |
| Good           | Thank you for tying that in       |
| Good, Good     | Thank you very much               |
| Good summary   | Thanks for reading that scripture |
| Good answer    | That's right                      |
| Good response  | True                              |
| Great          | Very fine                         |
| Indeed         | Very good point                   |
| Interesting    | Very nice                         |
| Lesson learned | Very true                         |
| Nice           | Very well                         |
| Nice comment   | Well noted                        |
| Nice reading   | Well put                          |
| Nice summary   | Well said                         |
| Nice tie-In    | Well stated                       |
| Of course      | Well summarized                   |
| OK             | Wonderful                         |
| Outstanding    | Yes                               |
| Perfect        | Yes, Yes                          |